

2023 PAR 3 League

Program Outline

1. Schedule:
 - a) Spring Session: May 9 – June 17 (6 weeks, three Par 3 classes offered per week).
 - b) Summer Session: July 4 – August 20 (6 weeks, three Par 3 classes offered per week).

Both Spring and Summer Sessions offer classes with up to 32 players per week as follows:
Tuesday mornings & Thursday afternoons (3 tee times both days/12 people per day/24 per week) plus either Wednesday evening or a weekend morning (2 tee times/8 people per day).

 - c) Fall Session: October (4 mid-afternoon classes on Fraserview’s full length golf course).
2. Format:
 - a) “PAR 3 League” transition from lesson tee to golf course – bringing new golfers together for continued learning, skill development and organized play.
 - b) Spring and Summer Session classes will run three days a week, alternating weekly between Queen Elizabeth Park (QE) and Rupert Park (RP) Par 3 Courses. Classes will also alternate weekly between a rotation of Tuesday morning, Wednesday evening and Thursday afternoon, or a rotation of Tuesday morning, Thursday afternoon and Saturday or Sunday morning. Each week’s classes will focus on one of the “PAR 3” educational units:
P-Professional Etiquette, A-Attitude for enjoyable golf & essential R-Rules of Golf for new golfers.
Player groups and tee times will be arranged and confirmed a week in advance. Participants will be guaranteed one weekly class and may take up to 3 classes a week (if space allows and on a first-come, first-served basis).
 - c) The Fall Session’s Full-Length Course classes will be arranged at Fraserview Golf Course once a week during October (dates, and times subject to course availability and player enrolment). All 2023 League participants who complete the Spring /or Summer Session’s PAR 3 education components, demonstrating basic knowledge and skills, will be eligible to register.
3. Registration: Players may register for the 2023 GGR Par 3 League through the fraserviewgolfacademy.com website. Each Spring or Summer Session participant will be charged a one-time registration fee of $75 plus gst. Players will be responsible for their own green fees, clubs, and balls. Queen Elizabeth Park / Rupert Park green fee rates for 2023 are approximately $16 per round ($11 per round for ages 65 plus).

The Fall Session’s four, full-length course classes will be held at Fraserview Golf Course, for a one-time fee of $45 per person and includes pre-game “warm up” activities, on-course play, and guidance with learning outcomes.
4. Benefits: Players will receive provision of PAR 3 education materials; coordination of weekly tee times & player groups; on-course supervision & guidance (including assistance with general playing skills); and proficiency testing of three player education components.
5. Education: Unit 1 – P-Professional Etiquette including on-course safety, speed of play, and care of the course.
Unit 2 – A-Attitude for being prepared to play enjoyable golf that promotes continual improvement.
Unit 3 – R-Rules of Golf simplified to help new golfers understand and apply essential basic rules.

