

2023 PAR 3 League

Program Description & Schedule

Supported by the Vancouver Park Board and hosted by the Fraserview Golf Academy (FGA), the PAR 3 League is intended for new golfers who want to learn to play the game properly – gaining the playing experience and skills they need to become confident golfers, and good golf citizens. One of FGA's Get Golf Ready transition-to-the-course training programs, the 2023 PAR 3 League will conduct on-course 'learn to golf by playing pitch & putt' classes in two six-week sessions: Spring (early-May – mid-June) & Summer (early-July – mid-August).

Classes will run three days a week, alternating weekly between Queen Elizabeth Park (QE) and Rupert Park (RP) Par 3 Courses. League meeting days will also alternate weekly between a rotation of Tuesday morning, Wednesday evening and Thursday afternoon, or a rotation of Tuesday morning, Thursday afternoon and Saturday or Sunday morning.

Tuesday and Thursday classes will have three tee times each, allowing up to 12 players maximum per day, while Wednesday evening and Saturday or Sunday mornings will have two tee times each, allowing up to 8 players maximum per day (up to 32 players per week).

Participants are responsible for their own green fees and clubs, balls, etc. A trained FGA facilitator will supervise a portion of each on-course class, guiding the PAR 3 learning process among students of similar ability.
