

2024 PAR 3+4 Leagues Program Outline

Supporting transition from lesson tee to golf course - preparing new golfers to play and enjoy the game in a timely and responsible manner!

- Program: The PAR 3 Spring and Summer Leagues each include: a preliminary 2-hr golf skills group lesson; & 6 weekly pitch & putt games (individual & team formats), with each game preceded by a 30-min. on-course training workshop. Students who complete the PAR 3 program and demonstrate basic playing skills and understanding of the PAR 3 educational components upon completion of their League will be eligible for the PAR 4 Fall League. Each PAR 4 class includes: pre-game “warm up” activities, on-course play, and expert guidance with course strategy & game management.
- Schedule:
1. PAR 3 Spring League: April 16 – June 8 (registration opens March 15)
  2. PAR 3 Summer League: July 2 – August 24 (registration opens May 15)
  3. PAR 4 Fall League: October 6 – 31 (registration follows completion of Summer League play).
- Class Size: PAR 3 Spring and Summer Leagues: 36 students maximum / PAR 4 Fall League: 24 students maximum.
- Skills Lesson: a) Full-swing & Shot-making Elements; b) Short Game & Putting Fundamentals.
- Workshops: 1) Golf Etiquette; 2) Respect for the Course; 3) Pace of Play; 4) Safety on the Course; 5) Basics of Golf Rules; & 6) Basics of Scorekeeping.
- PAR 3 Games: Play alternates weekly between Queen Elizabeth Park (QE) and Rupert Park (RP) Par 3 courses. Three weekly games will be scheduled over six weeks for the 2024 Spring & Summer League (plus two “flex weeks” in each League season, when players will be encouraged to arrange their own games at QE or RP). Game scheduling will rotate weekly between QE & RP as follows:
 QE – Tues morning, Thurs afternoon & Wed evening (3 tee times/12 players per day)
 RP – Tues morning, Thurs afternoon & Weekend morning (3 tee times/12 players per day)
- PAR 3 Format: The preliminary golf skills group lesson and weekly pre-class workshops are integral to the PAR 3 program & include: home study material, presentations, demonstrations and exercises. All players will be assessed for their command of group lesson & workshop elements, and for their basic playing skills as demonstrated during League games. All players will be guaranteed one game and may join up to three games in each week of scheduled League play (if space allows, on a first-come, first-served basis).
- PAR 4 Format: The PAR 4 Fall League includes four Full-Length Course classes at Fraserview Golf Course, with one weekday or weekend mid-afternoon class offered in each week of October (dates/times subject to course availability, weather conditions and player enrolment).
- Registration: Players may register for the 2024 PAR 3 Spring &/or Summer Leagues through fraserviewgolfacademy.com (under ADULT GOLF). Registration fee of $99.00+GST per League does not include green fees/club rentals. QE/RP green fees are approx. $16 per round ($11 for age 65 plus). The one-time PAR 4 Fall Session registration fee of $99.00+GST covers four weekly full-length course classes at Fraserview Golf Course – includes on-course play and use of loaner clubs, range balls, Fraserview driving range & practice areas, during all scheduled PAR 4 League classes.
- Benefits: PAR 3 Spring & Summer League players will receive: educational materials and presentations, coordination of tee times & player groups, a PGA-coached group lesson and six pre-game workshops, on-course guidance & playing tips, assessment of playing skills & understanding of PAR 3 education components. Best of all, PAR 3 & 4 Leaguers will enjoy playing a variety of Vancouver’s beautiful golf venues, making new friends with similar interests, sharing their learning and experiences in a well-organized, supportive environment.

