2026 Fraserview Par 3-4 Leagues
Spring/Summer/Fall Leagues Program Outline & Schedule

Learn to play one of the greatest games in the world through the 2026 Fraserview Par 3-4 Leagues: developing proper technique, learning on-course playing skills, gaining game experience, enjoying tons of fun and social interaction – helping students become confident, life-long golf enthusiasts.

The 2026 Par 3 Spring League (April 14 – May 31) & Summer League (July 7 – August 23) each include:

- A pre-season 2-hour group lesson with a PGA teaching professional: Full swing & Short game fundamentals.
- Reserved tee times on four days per week X 6 weeks. Games alternate weekly between QE & Rupert Park Par 3 courses, (max. enrolment of 36 players per Spring or Summer League roster - allows up to 12 players per game day).
  - One weekly game guaranteed plus extra games if space allows, on a first-come, first-served basis.
  - Players are responsible for their own green fees, clubs & balls.
- Each week includes a pre-game workshop focused on specific themes for course management.
  Workshop Topics (30 minutes each): Pace of Play; Safety on the Golf Course; Golf Etiquette; Basic Rules of Golf.
- Invitation to the annual Par 3 wind-up golf event and social.

FGA facilitators will guide the lesson workshops and assist students on the golf course during the first hour of play. Participants who complete the Spring or Summer League season and demonstrate proficiency in the Par 3 educational elements, will receive an early-September invite to join the 2026 Par 4 Fall League: four classes arranged weekly at Fraserview Golf Course through the month of October, focusing on skills and strategies that help transition to longer distance golf courses.
